Blues, Brews & Brats featuring Tracks Outta Town and The Excellos on May 24th to benefit the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

Madison, WI / May 3, 2012/ PR Newswire/Capital Brewery, located at 7734 Terrace Avenue in Middleton, Wisconsin, will be hosting the Blues, Brews & Brats event on Thursday, May 24th to benefit the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society. Gates will open at 4:00 pm.

Tracks Outta Town will open for the event at 5:00 pm followed by an incredible live auction with auctioneer Bob Johnson. The Excellos, with special guest Joe Nosek of the Cashbox Kings, will entertain the remainder of the evening.

A $20 donation to The Leukemia & Lymphoma Society will include a Capital brew, pop, or water, a famous brat or burger with a side from JL Richards Prime Meats and Catering of Oregon.

Beth Viney, a nominated candidate for the 2012 Capital City Leukemia & Lymphoma Society Man and Woman of The Year Fundraising Campaign, said, "Tremendously dedicated individuals and companies have united to make the Blues, Brews, & Brats event a premier fund raiser for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society."

Sponsors of the event include Capital Brewery, Integral Building Systems, Inc. Affiliated Communications of Wisconsin, Great Graphic, Great Signs, Tracks Outta Town, The Excellos, and JL Richards Prime Meats and Catering.

The Champions of Hope/Man & Woman of the Year Campaign will specifically focus on raising funds for children afflicted with Leukemia, Lymphoma and other types of blood cancers. More information on the organization and campaign itself, and the incredible people which it serves who are stricken with these life threatening diseases, as well as continued research for a cure can be found at www.lls.org or www.mwoy.org/wi/localchapter/cc/.
